

Institutional Readiness and Open SUNY

Open SUNY is a system-wide effort designed to maximize online-enabled learning opportunities for all SUNY students current and future. To answer your questions about Open SUNY and to be sure your campus is prepared and has the opportunity to participate fully, System Administration is offering assistance, at no cost, to help campus leadership teams assess their institutional readiness for the Open SUNY effort.

Why Does Institutional Readiness Matter?

- The quality of online-enabled education is a frequently voiced concern, and this process will help address concerns about quality on your campus and ensure you know what it takes to deliver a high-quality experience to your students.
- Open SUNY calls for an expansion of degree programs available online across the system. Ensuring quality at the degree program level requires support and commitment of campus leadership. This process will engage your campus leadership team to build that support and commitment.
- This process will allow you to explore the benefits your campus may be able to receive through participation in Open SUNY. We are planning to offer supports designed for students, faculty, and campuses through Open SUNY. Through this process you will become aware of the supports available and can determine how to leverage those supports to benefit your students and faculty.
- Use this process to learn what it takes to be as successful as possible in your online-enabled learning efforts.
- This process will help you identify areas in which you can improve processes and policies on your campus to save time, money, and improve quality.

What is the Online Learning Consortium Quality Scorecard?

The Online Learning Consortium (formerly Sloan-C) Quality Scorecard is the most comprehensive quality standard for the administration of distance learning programs that exists. It was developed by a team of distance learning leaders across the US and has been strongly endorsed by the Online Learning Consortium, the leading organization for quality in online learning. The quality indicators align closely to both Middle States standards and NYS Education Department standards/criteria for distance learning programs and serve as a good framework for campuses to use in either building programs or assessing their readiness to ensure quality and success in online learning.

Quality Framework

75 indicators across 9 categories:

- Institutional Support
- Technology Support
- Course Development and Instructional Design
- Course Structure
- Teaching and Learning
- Social and Student Engagement
- Faculty Support
- Student Support
- Evaluation and Assessment

Who Should Be Involved?

This process is designed to engage the campus leadership team representing academic leadership as well as all of the functional and infrastructure areas covered by the quality indicators in the scorecard. The required roles on the campus include, but are not limited to:
